How google OAuth2 works

Client server   Google server

Send req with client_id + scopes+ redirect url for "Code value"

Code value to redirected url of client server

Send POST req with code +secret + google oauth url+ redirect url for "Access token"

Access token within response

Client create credential for scope

Sent request to get intended Object for data